ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.Henry J. Nelson of Burlington has been in the furniture business in the same store for 46 years.Recent navy orders direct that Capt.
G. P. Colvocoresses, a Vermont, be detached from the command of the Newark, to command the midshipmen at the naval academy.Assistant Attorney General Charles H. Robb of Bellows Falls has returned from Washington after passing his vacation in this state and has assumed the charge of the department of justice.A valuable addition to the Mark Skinner library at Manchester has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Mark Willing, from the Armenian college in Venice. It consists of a large bible in the Armenian language, a grammar, first reader, and dictionary in English-Armenian, a prayer book in thirty-six different languages and the "Uncanonical Writings of Scripture" in English.W. W. Marshall of Hardwick disposed of four of his houses in quick order at the meeting of the board of civil authority recently. He appeared to have the appraisal on them reduced. Dorman Bridgeman, one of the men made the remark that Marshall would not take the amount to which he wanted list reduced for the lot. Marshall said Bridgeman would not give the amount for them. Bridgeman said he would. Marshall had the deeds drawn up and Bridgeman paid him the cash. The houses are located in the south part of the village.Henry Morse of North Benning was arrested Friday morning by Deputy Sheriff Russell on the charge of a brutal assault on his wife. He was brought before Judge Bates for trial. The evidence showed that Morse, alias Allen, arose that morning in a disagreeable frame of mind. His wife prepared a bath for him and went and told him that it was ready. Morse, it is said, immediately attacked her and in the scuffle which ensued Mrs. Morse had her right hand broken and sustained other injuries to her arm and body. The court heard the testimony and adjudged Morse guilty, fining him $100 and costs, and in default of the funds he may pay, he was committed to jail. Morse, it is said, has a terrible temper when out of sorts.Cassius R. Peck, formerly of Barrington, now of Guthrie, Okla., who recently resigned his position of assistant United States district attorney, has received notice that a commission has been issued by the interior department, appointing him secretary of the Osage allotting commission at a salary half as much as he received as assistant attorney. The promotion is made because of Mr. Peck's good work in the department of the interior while serving as an assistant under United States Attorney Horace Speed. Mr. Peck's new position makes him the legal adviser to the Osage commission, as he is the only attorney in any way connected with that board.
The duty of the commission is to divide the wealth of the Osage tribe of Indians among its individuals.

A Serious Runaway Accident.

A serious runaway occurred in Bellows Falls Wednesday evening, when a spirited horse driven by Mrs. Park Melish and her sister was frightened by an automobile driven by F. H. Barbitt. The women were thrown violently to the curb and against a telephone post. Mrs. Melish had but recently returned from a hospital where a surgical operation had been performed.
The horse was caught and it was discovered that the bit had broken.

Unable to Name Fish.

A curious looking fish, which local anglers so far have been unable to name, was caught recently at the mouth of Tarrant brook, where it comes. Older fishermen, by E. C. Scott, Jr. The fish is about the size and shape of a black bass, and has scales on portions of the body, while the remainder is skin resembling that of a pout, also having feelers and fins like this fish. Several of these fish have been caught in that place and are reported to be of excellent eating quality.

The "Coon Quartette."

Editor Times: As a native of the South whose sympathy for the once down-trodden colored race has never faded, and as only an adopted son of Vermont, I earnestly deplore and protest against the ignoble use that is being made of four colored gentlemen (the so-called "coon quartette") in the campaign of local domination and unpopular charges against her fair name, and honorable men who have administered her affairs. I know that Vermont won the gratitude and high esteem of the colored people when her soldiers helped to free them from cruel bondage. But what a different impression this four gentleman will receive of her by the time their ambitious showman is through with them if they carry these misleading impressions of Vermont into distant states!If only an adopted son can properly resent all this uncalled for reproach upon Vermont's honorable record, what will you native Vermonters do at the ballot box on September fourth?
